WHO WILL BE THE WINNERS IN THE FINAL COUNT?

Saturday Sunday And Monday Three More Opportunity Days To Gather The Vote Harvest

Candidates May Deposit Subscriptions in Sealed Ballot Box at First National Bank, in the Vaults of Which Institution It Now Remains for Safe Keeping Until Last Night.

Who is going to be the winner of the Grand Capital Prize in the Final Count of Votes Monday night? Who are going to be the nine other popular and energetic men and women who will be rewarded so handsomely? These are the questions of the hour. It remains entirely with the candidates, as the close of the great contest is now in the hands of the judges of the contest and the CANDIDATES THEMSELVES. That the plan of closing the contest is the fairest conceivable is understood by everyone and every candidate will do their best these last three days to win the greatest possible prize.

VALUABLE PRIZES CHANGE HANDS.

Two thousand dollars in valuable prizes will change hands Monday night, when the judges of the Daily News Great Prize Popularity Voting Contest make the final count of votes and proclaim the ten winners. And these ten prizes from first to last are each one well worth winning. The Grand Capital Prize—that Beautiful Dodge Brothers' Motor Car—is the acme of perfection in automobile construction. A car that embraces all of the advantages of a high-priced, high-power car, with an economy of upkeep within the reach of the average income. A $350.00 Monarch Piano; a $150.00 Perfect White Stone Diamond Ring; a $110.00 Beautiful Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph; a $100.00 Furniture Order; $75.00 Business College Scholarship; $50.00 Bank Account; $40.00 Gold Watch and two $25.00 Eastman Kodaks complete the list. Take full advantage of the THREE LAST OPPORTUNITY DAYS to become a winner.

ALAMEDA CO. LABOR COUNCIL GETS OUT OF POLITICS

No more politics in the Alameda Central Labor Council, says the Alameda County Workman.

A motion to this effect was adopted by the council at its meeting last Monday night.

The outcome of the recent city election in Oakland apparently convinced the Central Council that it would be wise for it to stick to the industrial field.

For years past the several labor councils throughout California have made it a practice to endorse various measures and candidates with a hope of ameliorating the condition of the men and women of labor.

The Central Labor Council of Alameda county evidently is of the belief that solidarity and political action travel in opposite directions.

The motion adopted Monday night declares, in effect, that no delegate shall present to the council any proposition to endorse any individual who seeks a political position or appointment, nor any individual who is doing propaganda work for any political party.

BIG INITIATION BY I. O. O. F.

Four were initiated at the meeting of the Independent Order of Foresters last night in Moose Hall. After the meeting dancing was indulged in.

A big initiation will be held at the next meeting, June 4. The drill team from San Francisco will attend and Chief Murphy will be present.

The committee on arrangements consists of Miss Mary Krenzer, Mrs. M. Copeland, Tom Krenzer, L. B. Hutchins, W. J. Thomson (chairman) and Mrs. M. Peters.

FREE BUREAU TO START SOON

John S. Blair, deputy state labor commissioner, will be in charge of the Sacramento Free Employment Bureau maintained by the state and provided for in the bill signed several days ago by Governor Johnson.

State Labor Commissioner John McLaughlin has evidenced his intention of appointing Blair to handle the employment bureau work as well as the labor bureau, as at present.

Free employment bureaus will be started in August as soon as the law goes into effect in Sacramento, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Oakland. If found necessary, others will be opened later.

Owing to the fact that the appropriation is but $25,000 for each year, for this work, it will have to be started on a small scale.

The Sacramento office will have $4100 a year to spend.

N.D.G.W. WHIST PARTY MONDAY

Monday night a whist party will given. Score cards will cost 25 cents, be given in Pythian Castle by the Native Daughters of the Golden of Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Grace West. Merchandise prizes will be Black and Mrs. Gus Muller.

ENDEAVORERS TO CONVENE AT CONCORD

CONCORD, May 21.—Members of the Junior Christian Endeavor have been busy for the past few days preparing for the annual convention of the county delegates who will gather here today.

Baseball Dance At East Shore Park Tonight

Nothing has been left undone by the various committees in charge of the baseball benefit ball to be given at East Shore Park tonight, to make the dance the big dance of the season. All arrangements, even to the minutest of details, are completed, and now nothing remains but for the music to start.

All the famous baseball impressarios of the city will be among those present, in addition to the majority of the members of the Oakland and Los Angeles Coast League teams, who have sent word they are coming.

The music will be furnished by an eight-piece orchestra. Refreshments will be served, with William Devereaux, captain of the Elks, presiding over this most important detail of the evening's proceedings.

The funds derived from the affair will go into the coffers of the Richmond Baseball Association, which is sadly in need of replenishing. Whether or not the fans of this city will be given the same fast brand of ball in the future as they have up to date this season, depends largely on how well the dance is attended.

P.E.P. ARE HIS INITIALS--THEY SPELL "PEP"

With his shirt sleeves rolled up, and with his oldest clothes on, Rev. P. E. Peterson, pastor of the First Methodist church, yesterday helped break ground for the new $3000 parsonage that the congregation will erect on its lot immediately adjoining the church building. The scene was a busy one. To assist in getting the foundation the new home of the pastor and his family in shape, a team and scraper was brought into use. From now on the work will proceed rapidly.

SHERIFF SEEKS ANTIOCH THIEF

Two burglaries of an identical nature, one in Antioch and one in Martines, have led the sheriff's office to believe that the same parties are responsible.

Yesterday morning a telephone message from Antioch conveyed the news that the store of the Antioch Hardware and Furniture Company had been broken into last night and besides $3 in cash, numerous revolvers, razor strops, carving sets and other articles were taken.

The men broke into the store by the rear door, smashing the panel in and jerking the bolt back. Under Sheriff William Veale and some of his deputies are there taking fingerprints.

Cutting out the panel of the rear door, burglars jerked back the bolt and entered the store of Henry Hyde, grocery man of Martinez. They had evidently remained in the store for some time, as plenty of evidence could be found of their presence in the way things had been thrown about.

LABORER IS HIT BY TRAIN

CROCKETT, May 21.—Thomas Moran, laborer, employed by the Southern Pacific, and a well known resident of this city, was struck by the east bound San Ramon local as it passed by here yesterday and his left shoulder was dislocated and he had severe lacerations of the scalp.

Dr. J. G. Harrington attended the injured man and he was later taken aboard the train to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco.

This makes the second accident within a month in this region, the killing of a man at Oleum tunnel a week ago making the first. Moran was working along the track and failed to step back far enough to let the cars pass.

SENIOR CLASS BANQUET HELD

Three Hundred Attend Crowning Social Event of Term—Paul Follett Is Toastmaster.

One of the brilliant events of the local high school's year was the annual senior banquet, which was held in the gymnasium of that institution last night. The banquet was replete with speeches on various phases of high school life, class prophecies, vocal selections, etc.

The interior of the gymnasium was beautifully decorated for the event by the junior class and the tables were artistically laid out for the 300. The menu of the banquet was novel and delicious, being in the main a sumptuous fruit salad.

Paul Follett, next term's president, was the toastmaster of the evening and handed the introductions smoothly and wit ability. Miss Wilhma Miller spoke on "What the high school offers in the way of ideals," and Holloway Jones on "Sime high school responsibilities"; Miss Annette Maddox sang a solo, and Reginald Biggs, a freshman, spoke on "High School After One Year," followed by a solo by Clarence Brown.

Then began the interesting prophesies, Miss Evelyn Payne supposedly returning from San Francisco in 1925, told of many of the members of the graduating class whom she met in the interim. Miss Maryanna Mount, returning in the same year from an extended trip to Europe, spoke of the present war, how the map and geographical names had been changed, and of the local graduates that had a prt in it. Paul Smith visited the White House while on a business trip and met another of the graduates talking before the national bar. Helen Boyd, just returning from Australia, spoke of meeting several of the graduates there, all well situated, of course. Toastmaster Follett proposed a toast to the "Great Class of the Great YeYar," hoping that their propheses might be equaled.

Walter Hoffman, one of the honored guests, spoke ably on "Our Departure." Two more of the departing ones, Miss Rose Little and Miss Merle Jenkins, sang a duet.

Superintendent Helms spoke of the influx of eighth grade graduates every years and of the graduation of finished seniors from the high school and Principal Tucker spoke of the smoothness of the last year's work.

From the ridiculous to the sublime, was the variance of the two closing numbers. John Casey gave Irish jokes in Irish brogue, as only an Irish born Irishman can. Elmo Zumwalt gave a weighty and able talk on "After High School, What——?"

The following are the graduates:
Philip Harold Angell.
Juliet Campbell.
Dayna Wilson Cox.
Alice Naomi Greathouse.
Irene Rose Grunhut.
Ethel Hall.
Walter Carl Hoffman.
Merle Lorene Jenkins.
Mary Emelda Keys.
Hazel Thelma Kilmer.
Rose Thankful Little.
Chester Blume McAllister.
Valera Nell McLarney.
Joseph Sharp.
Stella Shoemaker.
William B. Stewart.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH.

422 Tenth street. C. A. Wilson, pastor. "We may be willing or even intensely desirous to escape the blows sin aims at us; we may be anxious to wound, hamper and limit our sin, and keep it under control; we may wish to tame the wild animal and domesticate it, so as to make it yield some pleasure and profit, and yet be reluctant to slay it outright." Theme for 11 a. m., "A Castaway." 7:30 p. m., "Naaman." Bible school at 9:45 a. m. Juniors at 3 p. m. and young people's service at 6:30 p. m.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. P. E. Peterson, pastor of the First Methodist church, announces that he will preach at both the morning and evening services. Sunday the topic of his morning sermon will be, "Unspoken Thoughts of Jesus," while in the evening he will give a character study of the history of Judas.

Wife No. 2 Is Loyal Awaits "Dead" Man

When Thomas Judson Brown, formerly a prominent local contractor, who was recently sentenced to serve a term of six years in San Quentin prison for bigamy in the Superior Court of Merced county, walks out of the penitentiary a free man several years hence, he will be met with open arms by Mrs. Brown number 2, who was, before her bigamous marriage, Miss Hallihan of Oakland.

While Mrs. Brown number 2, or Miss Hallihan, states to the officers that she thought Brown was single when she married him, and that she had been grossly deceived by him, she insists that the fact that he risked his liberty to marry her, proves his great love for her. She declares she will stay by him, and will visit him frequently in jail. She is now making her home in Oakland.

In order to be free from his first wife, whom he says he does not love, Brown concocted a story about having perished in the wilds of the Kern river canyon. Mrs. Brown number 1, after several months, found her husband was not dead, but was living with Miss Hallihan on a ranch near Porterville. His arrest on a bigamy charge followed this discovery made by the original and real wife. One month after he was arrested Brown was sentenced to the penitentiary.

It is possible, under the law, for a person to easily obtain a divorce from a convicted felon, and it is possible that the original Mrs. Brown will get her decree before her husband is again a free man. If this is done, Miss Hallihan, if she is in the same frame of mind as she is now, may be free to marry the man who went to jail because he married her.

If Brown is a good prisoner, and gets credits off for exemplary behavior, while in San Quentin, he will be paroled at the end of a little over four years.

Realty Man Is Fined For Battery On Newsboy

Leo Persico, real estate man, was fined $40 yesterday by Police Judge Lindsey for attacking Walter Toussaint, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Toussaint, Seventh street and Cutting boulevard.

Young Toussaint is a high school boy. On the evening of May 11 he tried to collect a bill for a newspaper subscription from Persico. He came home with a front tooth gone, a bloody nose and a large bump on his head.

WOODMAN MASK BALL TONIGHT

All plans have been completed for the big masquerade ball of the Woodmen of the World to be given in W. O. W. Hall tonight. The committee in charge, which is composed of Frank Mathews, R. E. Juleen, J. A. Griffin and M. E. Kelley, says the dance will be one of the best of the entire season. The music will be of the best. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

BOYER LECTURE IS SENSATION

The First M. E. church was crowded last night to hear Rev. T. A. Boyer's lecture, "What Time Is It and Where Are We?" The lecture proved all that was promised for it.

Other features of the successful affair were the singing of a quartette consisting of J. H. Plate, Rev. P. E. Peterson, Dorian Bradley, Rev. Guy A. White; a duet by Rev. White and J. H. Plate and the singing of native songs of twelve Japanese.

GOES TO PENN. FOR HIS BRIDE

Harry Gelbman, who is connected with the Union Market, is well known in Richmond, is on his way to Oil Center, Pa., where he will marry Miss Anna Sullivan, sister of James Sullivan, Standard Oil foreman and resident of San Pablo.

Both Miss Sullivan and Gelbman are popular here. Miss Sullivan was formerly a resident of Richmond and her return will please a large circle of friends.

Sandy T. Gadbury, father of Sardelia Gadberry, the 16-year-old girl who with Jesse Tingstrom, Richmond dancing teacher, went to a cottage in Wildcat canyon and lived for several days, until the father routed them out with a revolver, was a visitor to Martinez recently.

The parent has been spending his spare time in tracing the movements of his daughter and has found that she has been leading a rather wild life while away from home. In consultation with District Attorney H. D. Johnston, he asserted that he blamed his daughter as much as he did Tingstrom, and that he did not believe a man's life should be ruined under such conditions even if it was his own daughter.

Gadberry wants Tingstrom shown clemency and will agree to the marriage which Johnston declares to bring about. The girl and Tingstrom are both willing that the knot be tied and if it is as it this is by far the best solution of a perplexing problem at the best.

HOUGH AFTER BETTER HELP

Superintendent of the county hospital, W. H. Hough will soon ask for an assistant, some one who can attend to the office duties when he is not there. Hough wants a man who is capable of overseeing and assisting in the management so that he can attend to the buying and caring for the patients.

"I have plenty of cheap help," stated Hough, "but I want some one who is paid a fair salary and who is competent. The increased duties brought about by the erection of the new addition to the hospital make it imperative to have another man, so that some one can be on duty constantly."

Hough stated that he had awarded the Bear department store the contract for the mattresses and to Davis Brothers the contract for the shades for the new addition. Myers and company of San Francisco will furnish the beds.

WHIST PARTY THIS EVENING

Mrs. H. J. Hill, Mrs. B. L. Richards, Mrs. Eva Shach and Mrs. Fuller, the committee from Contra Costa Temple of Pythian Sisters, which is in charge of the merchandise whist party of the Pythian Sisters, to be given in Pytian Castle tonight, announced last night that the party will undoubtedly be one of the most successful in the history of the lodge. No pains and expense have been spared in making the evening a gala one, and one long to be remembered. A merchandise prize will be given for every three tables. During the evening there will be refreshments and dancing.

YEOMEN TO PLAN.

At the next meeting of the Yeomen Lodge, arrangements will be made for the trip to Oakland Homestead No. 839, on June 19, when the local team will put on the initiatory work.

Mrs. Clare D. Horner, who is visiting in the East, will not return for several months.

W. H. Hart of San Francisco visited City Clerk Art Faris Wednesday.

REPAIRING OF MAIN SOON FINISHED

Foundation of Street Good—Chuck Holes to Be Fixed—All Will Be Satisfactory.

Work is progressing rapidly on the improvement of the Main street pavement.

The job as originally laid down was one of the worst ever done in Richmond.

Several reasons have been given for this. Mayor Garrard declares that one of the chief reasons was that the oil was put on in cold weather and that it did not become properly worked through the entire paving.

When the Main street people protested, declaring that the pavement was failing to pieces a month after it had been laid, the councilmen were unanimous in condemning the job.

The chuck holes are now being filled up, a new layer of oil being spread and the whole thoroughly rolled. The foundation of the pavement is good and with the repairing the job should be satisfactory.

The Daily News "knocked" the Main street job. The right kind of criticism is the best kind of "boost."

SUPR. KNOTT RETURNS FROM SOUTHERN CAL.

Is Enthusiastic in Praise of Southern City and Exposition—Attended Convention.

Yesterday Supervisor Zeb Knott returned from San Diego, where he attended the convention of County Supervisors.

Knott was jubilant over the trip, full of praise for the San Diego exposition and the manner in which the supervisors were entertained by the Southern Californians.

Supervisor Buchanan, wife and children, and County Clerk J. H. Wells were the other Contra Costa delegates to the convention.

Highways, tax systems and the like were discussed at the convention session. Knott met his friend, Secretary of State Jordan, in San Diego.

CONSTABLE TO LEAD FIGHT ON NEW LICENSE

Residents of Stege to Strenuously Oppose Issuance of New Permit for the "Mascot."

That a move to issue a temporary license for the Maggi Saloon would be strenuously combated by the residents of Stege, particularly himself, was the statement of Constable Davis last night.

The fixtures of the saloon will be sold at public auction this morning at 10 o'clock. Davis will act as auctioneer. The sale is to be held to satisfy claims aggregating $231. The saloon is owned by Robert McDunken and Robert Webb.

G. A. R. WOMEN WIN FLAG SECOND TIME

The Richmond Ladies' Auxiliary to the G. A. R. for the second time this year has captured the flag by obtaining the most new members. The flag was awarded the local lodge at the convention in San Jose. Ivy Dietrich, president of the lodge, voices her confidence that the flag will be won again next year, for the third consecutive time.

MRS. LA LONDE AND DAUGHTER RETURN

Mrs. J. La Londe and daughter, Laura, have returned from a month's visit to Mrs. La Londe's mother in Merced, Cal. Mrs. La Londe declares that though she thoroughly enjoyed her visit, she is glad to be back in Richmond.

SOCIALISTS OPPOSE WAR AND WAR AGITATION.

The following manifesto was issued by the National Committee of the Socialist Party in its annual session in Chicago:

To the People of the United States—

Fellow Citizens: The insidious propaganda of American militarism has received a powerful impetus through the destruction of Amcrican lives as a result of the war operations in Europe. The jingo press of the country is busily engaged in reckless efforts to turn the cries of natural indignation of the people into a savage howl of revenge. Short-sighted "patriots" and professional militarists are inflaming the minds and blinding the reason of their fellow citizens by appeals to national vanity. The sinister influences of the armament ring work through thousands of hidden channels to stimulate a war sentiment which to it means business and profits.

In this grave hour of national crisis, the Socialist Party of the United States raises its voice in solemn and emphatic protest against this dangerous and criminal agitation, and proclaims its undying opposition to militarism and war. No disaster, however appalling, no crime, however revolting, justifies the slaughter of nations and the devastation of countries.

The destruction of the Lusitania and the killing of hundreds of non-combatants, men, women and children on board the steamer, brings more closely home to use the fiendish savagery of warfare and should inspire us with stronger determination than ever to maintain peace and civilization at any cost.

Strong armaments and military preparations inevitably and irresistibly lead to war as the tragic example of the nations of Europe has conclusively demonstrated.

We call upon the people of the United States to profit by the lesson of our unfortunate brothers on the other side of the Atlantic ocean and to throttle all efforts to draw this country into the dangerous paths of international quarrels, imperialism, militarism and war.

We call particularly upon the workers of America to oppose war and all agitation for war by the exercise of all the power in their command, for it is their class who pays the awful cost of warfare, without receiving any of its rewards. It is the workers who primarily furnish the soldiers on the battlefield and give their limbs and lives in the senseless quarrels of their masters.

Let us proclaim in tones of unmistakable determination: Not a worker's arm shall be lifted for the slaying of a fellow-worker of another country, nor turned for the production of man-killing implements of war supplies! Down with war! Forward to international peace and the world-wide solidarity of all workers!"

INDICTMENTS OF UNIONISTS.

Every reader of a newspaper in the United States knows that eighteen labor officials have been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury sitting in Chicago. They may or may not know that eighty-two contractors and managers of corporations also were indicted, as such news does not travel as fast or as accurately as indictments against union officials.

The eighteen union men and the eighty-two contractors and managers of corporations are charged with violations of the Sherman anti-trust law. Some of them prevented it is charged, the unloading of certain machinery shipped from another state into Chicago. Others are accused of forming a combination to force the sale of only certain electrical apparatus; that such articles shipped into Chicago from other states could not be sold because of this combination.

The indictments are regarded by leading labor men as the most dangerous ever conceived in the fertile brains of the leaders of the National Manufacturers' Association. If the indictments are found good law the building trades unions will be constautly harassed by the manufacturers.

Among the labor men indicted are Simon O'Donnell, president of the Chicago Building Trades Council; Michael Boyle, business agent Electrical Workers' Union; Charles W. Fry, business agent Machinists' Union; Michael Artery, business agent Machinery Movers and Riggers; Frank Condon, business agent Boilermakers' Union, and Raymond Cleary, former business agent Electrical Workers' Union.

MIRAMAR BALL IS EVENT OF SOCIAL SEASON

Hundreds of dance lovers of this city, county and the surrounding cities, attended the dance of Miramar Chapter of Eastern Starr, given last night at East Shore Park. In years past Miramar Chapter has given some of the biggest dances in the history of the city. Last night's affair eclipsed all former efforts.

No expense was spared in providing pleasure for the guests. Those who were fortunate enough to receive invitations to be present enjoyed themselves to the utmost. There was not a single discordant note during the entire evening. Every little detail of the affair was carried through as planned by the committee.

Under the leadership of Professor Cooper, the orchestra of the Hotel Oakland, furnished the music. Everything connected with the dance was good. In perfection of detail, fullness of enjoyment and the perfect spirit of the gathering, it has been many months since Richmond has had a dance that in any way equals that of last night.

Attorney Hiram Jacobs, Past Worthy Patron of Miramar Chapter, acted as floor manager. It was Jacobs' job to see that all dancers had partners for as many dances as they cared to have. Too much credit cannot be given Jacobs for the efficient way in which he handled the large throng, and fostered the "get-acquainted" spirit.

POINT THEATRE UNDER BOYCOTT

Because, it is claimed, Manager Tcherassy of the Point theater refused to pay the local union scale to a moving picture operator and is running his machine himself, the Stagehands and Motion Picture Operators' Union has picketed the Point theater.

Because most of the Pullman cars now being constructed are of steel, the local Pullman shops are not as rushed on repair work as in past years. Many of the cars being built in the East are repaired in the Eastern shops of the Pullman company, cutting down the work in the shops almost by half.

Several cuts have been made in the working force at the Pullman shops since the first of the year. Quite a number of men have been laid off since the first of the month.

These employes of the company, married and single, who reside in Richmond are being favored as much as it is possible to favor them.

RIGHT OF WAY DEEDS FOR PIPE LINE FILED

The filing of 95 deeds for rights of way for the oil pipe system of the Valley Pipe Line Company through Contra Costa county late Thursday afternoon completed the grants of permits to build the line through Contra Costa lands and there now remains no obstacle to prevent the completion of the line to the refinery of the Shell Company in Martinez.

H. L. Pingry, right of way agent under F. A. Radle brought the instruments to the office of Recorder M. H. Hurley in a large suit case and the recording of these instruments all at one time sets a new record for this county.

J. O. STENMARK FUNERAL HELD

Several score were in attendance yesterday at the funeral of the late J. O. Stenmark, lighthouse keeper, who died early in the week, which was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Smallwood parlors on Macdonald avenue under the auspices of Eclipse Lodge of Odd Fellows. Mourners were present not only from Richmond, but from all sections of Contra Costa county, San Rafael and San Francisco.

Rev. Guy A. White, the officiating ministey, delivered a glowing eulogy over the bier of the decedent. The profusion of floral offerings was a testimonial of the high regard in which the departed was held.

The pall bearers were all members of Eclipse Lodge. The cortege proceeded from the Smallwood parlors to Oakland, where the remains were cremated in the Oakland crematory.

MARTINEZ VOTES SCHOOL BONDS

By the overwhelming majority of 130 to 5 the $2000 bond issue to purchase the southerly one-half of block 42, bounded by Castro, Henrietta and Smith streets and just north of the present grammar school property to be used for school purposes was carried in Martinez on Thursday. The vote was very light and little interest was manifested in the election. Those who were interested in the proposition went to the polls, but the great majority feeling that the proposition would carry without any doubt, did not go near the polls.

It is probable that plans will be made soon for the building of a new building to be occupied by the primary grades the present school building being overcrowded.

APPENDICITIS VICTIM IS LAID AWAY IN CONCORD

WALNUT CREEK, May 21.—The remains of the little 10-year-old George Alves, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Alves of the Monara Valley, who died in his mother's arms Tuesday afternoon in the Valley Mercantile store here, were buried at Concord Thursday morning.

Mrs. Alves was here doing some shopping when her son was stricken with an attack of chronic apuendicitis. He fainted and was carried into the Valley Mercantile store. A physician was hurriedly summoned, but an examination proved that the boy's condition was then so serious that he could not be moved.

ANSWER CHARGE OF MISCONDUCT

Yesterday being the last day allowed by District Attorney Thos. D. Johnston to the members of the Water Commission to appear before the Superior Court to answer to the charges of "wilful misconduct" preferred by the Grand Jury, Attorney Lee D. Windrem filed demurrers to the complaint.

Johnston extended the time four days at the request of the defendants. The demurrers merely recite that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to warrant a cause for action.

JUNK PEDDLER GIVEN SIX MONTHS

Sam Meyers, the junk peddler, who was caught with a quantity of lead stolen from the Mountain Copper smelter in his possession and who pleaded guilty to petit larceny yesterday, was sentenced by Judge R. H. Latimer to serve six months in the county jail.

APPENDICITIS VICTIM IS LAID AWAY IN CONCORD

WALNUT CREEK, May 21.—The remains of the little 10-year-old George Alves, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Alves of the Monara Valley, who died in his mother's arms Tuesday afternoon in the Valley Mercantile store here, were buried at Concord Thursday morning.

Mrs. Alves was here doing some shopping when her son was stricken with an attack of chronic apuendicitis. He fainted and was carried into the Valley Mercantile store. A physician was hurriedly summoned, but an examination proved that the boy's condition was then so serious that he could not be moved.

RODEO PASSES SEWER BONDS

RODEO, May 21.—By a vote of 91 to 1 the voters of the recently organized sanitary sewer district placed their seal of approval on the project at the polls, and now the board is preparing to advertise for bids and go ahead with the work.

The proposition was to vote bonds to the extent of $17,000 for the laying of sewer mains throughout the business and residential district. The plans were drawn by Civil Engineer W. S. Farley. There were 93 votes cast and of this number 91 favored the project, one was against and one ballot was spoiled.

STUDENTS THROWN FROM BUGGY; NARROW ESCAPE

CONCORD, May 21.—An accident which might have had more serious consequences, occurred here Thursday morning, when William and Hazel Dukes were thrown out of the buggy in which they were driving to the high school from their home at Pleasant Hill.

Near the corner of Salvio and Grant streets, the horse which the young folks were driving became frightened. When the animal gave a sudden lurch, both occupants of the buggy were thrown to the pavement.

SEBASTOPOL AND ELKS ARRANGE SERIES

J. G. Thomas, manager of the Sebastopol nine, and Bill Luce, manager of the Richmond Elks, yesterday made arrangements for a two-game series betweeen their clubs. The first game will be played on the Sebastopol lot on June 20, and the return battle will be waged at Luce Park here on June 27.

Thomas states Sebastopol will show some of the rest of the semi-pro nines in this section something. Elmer Martinoni, Antioch boy, who has been released by Portland in the Pacific Coast League, will hereafter do the hurling for Sebastopol, while Block, who was recently with the Seals, will do the receiving.

Artie Benham and Jimmy Reardon were recently announced as the new battery for Sebastopol. These boys have accepted jobs elsewhere. Thomas is more than satisfied with the new battery he has obtained and he has good cause to be.

If the Elks and Sebastopol break even on the two games a third will undoubtedly be played to decide the supremacy.

"TOOTHPICK" GRAHAM WINS MAIN EVENT: LAFFETY-ALBRIGHT DRAW

Five hundred fans crowded into Kirby Floyd's pavilion last night to see the boxing bouts. Although this last show was not as good as its predecessor, the fans were well satisfied, with the exception of a few who don't and won't appreciate cleverness.

By far the best bout of the night was that between Jack Albright and Jim Lafferty, who were in one of the special events. For four fast, furious rounds these boys battled to a draw with each other. Part of the time Lafferty led, while part of the time Albright was the aggressor. Albright crowded his man to the ropes with frequency, but in the breaks Lafferty landed the cleanest blows. Lafferty was a revelation. He was a vastly improved fighter over the Lafferty who took a terrific beating at the hands of Plug Milne recently.

The decision of Referee Jimmie Silvas was booed. Half of the house thought Lafferty won, while the other half was sure that Albright should have been granted the decision. These boys will probably be rematched for the next show.

The main event was an exhibition of boxing, not fighting. Freddie Graham, the human toothpick, after four rounds of milling that was good, bad and indifferent, was declared the winner by Referee Silvas. The decision was unanimously accepted as the right one by the crowd. Graham came to Richmond with that famous smile, and left wearing it. Brown tried hard all the time, but Graham was too clever for him. For those fans who are not satisfied with the bout we will say that Graham and Brown are the fastest bantams that Oakland boasts of.

Kid Wunlick failed to live up to the expectations of Earl Ritchie and his other friends. From the tap of the gong he started in to root with Plug Milne. He rooted just about five seconds. Milne caught him a good crack on the side of the jaw, and down he went. He got up and was knocked down again. The third time he did not arise, but took the count. This all happened in 20 seconds. Milne's punches were terrific. It was Wunlick's first start in the ring, and he is entitled to a whole lot of credit for taking on a classy performer like Milne.

The Milne-Wunlick fight was a long drawn out affair compared to the Kid Green-Bob Hogan mill. Green, though a lightweight, was somewhat heavier than his opponent. He bored in from the start. There was a fast exchange of rights and lefts on both sides, and in less time than it takes to tell it, Hogan went down. Mister Hogan dreamily took the count of ten and was then carried out of the ring by his seconds. Referee Jimmie Silvas declared the bout "no contest," and the fans heartily agreed with him.

Young Butch lost a decision to Ivey Johnson of Oakland after four rounds of hard fighting, in which both boys did considerable clinching. The first round, which was a slow one, was even. In the second Butch hit his opponent low as a result of that newly acquired crouch of his. The foul was not allowed. Butch being cautioned by the referee. Johnson won on points, and the shade was not so big at that. There was not a discordant voice when Jimmie Silvas raised Johnson's hands, denoting he was the winner.

Little Jimmie Duffy, the original Jimmie Duffy, took on a man at least five pounds heavier than himself when he battled with Johnnie Conde of Oakland. Yet he won the decision. Conde was clever, and did considerable dancing around. Duffy was nearly as clever, and possessed a good kick in both fists. Duffy was to have fought his namesake, Duffy, but Duffy number 2 was taken sick yesterday afternoon and the matchmaker was lucky to be able to substitute Ross. We have seen worse fights in our time. The last two rounds were good ones.

Cornelius O'Hara was the official announcer of the evening. To judge from the big crowd present the fight game has taken a firm hold on Richmond. Nearly every seat was taken.

RICHMOND ELKS AND ALAMEDA READY

The Elks and the Alameda team are ready for Sunday's battle at Luce Park. There have been some good games played so far this season, but this coming battle looms up like the best of them all. Both nines are admitted to be the class of the bushes. Alameda never gives up until the last man, and the Elks are noted for being the same kind of a bunch. There is no better southpaw in the bushes than Gordon and Nelson, who will oppose each other on the mound. These lads have a world of stuff and they are in fine form, so it looks as if the affair will resolve itself into a pitcher's battle.

NAPA TO PLAY

According to the latest diamond dust drifting from Napa, the asylum city is going to make one last try to organize a club in that city. It was announced during the last few days that Dutch Lutge, the former Napa high catcher, and more recently Veterans' Home receiver, would endeavor to line up a club and start the season on the afternoon of May 30.

MARTINEZ SAYS GUN CLUB HAS COLD FEET

(Martinez Standard.)

Admiral Perry, while doing his little North Pole stunt, never had his pedal extremities get any more frigid than those of the Richmond Gun Club at the present time. In fact, the Alhambra Gun Club crew is seriously thinking of despatching Dr. Merrithew to the scene to give first aid treatment.

Some time ago the Richmond Club was clamoring for a match and the local trap artists settled upon next Sunday as the time for accommodating them. Now comes floating along the railroad tracks the fragrant odor of limburger, accompanied by a noise, which sounds like "We don't want any of your shells and we don't want anything like we got a year ago to happen or we will have to seek some new members."

Yes, the Richmond Club has run out and is now playing ground hog in the marshes which ordinarily bear the name of respectable streets. "If we ever get that crowd up here," stated Burnham today, "they will have those cold tootsies of theirs warmed to a proper degree." So there you are.

PAPER BOYS TO MEET AGAIN TODAY

For the second time the News team and the fast Terminal nine will have a battle to decide diamond supremacy. The game will be played at Luce Park at 10:30. Last Saturday the News bunch vanquished the Terminals. The Terminals say that they will make it even up today. Can they. The News boys say so.
